How do I request/apply for housing?

In order to apply for on-campus housing, you must be a confirmed student with the intention to enroll with the University. Once confirmed, access the Housing Portal through my.pacific.edu to submit your request to live on campus. Residents are selected from a waiting list maintained by the housing office.

How many on-campus apartments are available?

The Sacramento campus has several on-campus housing options including studio and one- and two-bedroom units. We can accommodate up to 160 tenants.

Who is eligible to live on campus?

All Sacramento campus students who are enrolled as full-time students are eligible to live on campus. The Sacramento campus has accommodations for both single and married students, as well as students in a domestic partnership.

Are pets allowed in on-campus housing units?

Pets are not allowed in on-campus housing units. Students who are registered with the SSD Office will be allowed to have service animals.

Are on-campus units furnished?

Both furnished and unfurnished housing options are offered.

May I take a tour of on-campus units? Are floor plans available?

Due to full occupancy, we are unable to provide you a tour of the on-campus units, however, if you have any questions, please contact the housing office at 916.739.7119 or sachousing@pacific.edu if you have any questions.

When is on-campus housing available? Can I live on campus in the summer?

Depending upon availability, units will be ready to occupy in either July or August prior to the beginning of classes. Tenants sign a 12-month contract and remain in their apartments through the summer.

How much does it cost to live on campus?

Does the cost of on-campus housing include utilities?

Rent rates include electricity, water, garbage, sewer, and hot water (gas).

Is it cheaper to live on campus than to live off campus in Sacramento?

On-campus rent prices are below market value in comparison to similar off-campus accommodations.

Will the housing office help me find a place to live off campus?

The housing office has several resources to assist students in finding off-campus housing options. However, Pacific does not endorse or broker off-campus housing providers. You may also consult the relocation services and housing search engines provided on the housing web page.

Where do most students live off campus?

Midtown, West Sacramento, "The Pocket," and Land Park are all popular neighborhoods for students. However, students live in several different areas depending on individual needs and preferences. Consult our relocation services and housing engines for more information on different Sacramento neighborhoods.

Do I need to bring a car to campus or is there viable public transportation?

Like most cities and towns in California, it is easiest to have a car in Sacramento. The nearest light rail station to the Sacramento campus is about two miles away with no connecting bus service. Sacramento is also a bike friendly city. Many of our students use bikes as a transportation option.

Where will I be able to park my car?

The Sacramento campus offers parking in campus lots with a permit. Student resident parking is available on the north and south sides of the campus. There are a limited number of underground garage spaces available. For questions about parking please contact [insert Public Safety phone number].

Full-time campus security is provided by the Sacramento campus.

How do I pay rent? When is it due?

Rent is paid with tuition and bills are generally issued at least 2 months prior to the start of classes. Payments are made in the student payment portal and students can contact Student Business Services at 916-739-7054 for information on payment options.
